

Swiss and German migration officials visited IOM Kosovo return and reintegration projects

Swiss and German migration officials in village of Skivjan Gjakova/Djakovica municipality

In October a high level Swiss and German delegation -- consisting of Dr. Peter Mortiz, Director of the German Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF), Mr Eric Kaser and Alfred Fritschi from the Swiss Federal Office for Migration (FOM), Caroline Roth, Swiss Migration Attaché in Kosovo and Simon Junker from the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC) Office in Kosovo -- visited IOM Kosovo and several ongoing reintegration projects for voluntary returnees from Switzerland. The delegation was pleased to see the positive impact of the successful implementation of the projects for the returnees and their lives. During the visit, the Swiss and German migration officials confirmed their intention to further support IOM activities for returnees' successful reinsertion in Kosovo society.
